

Close the program →

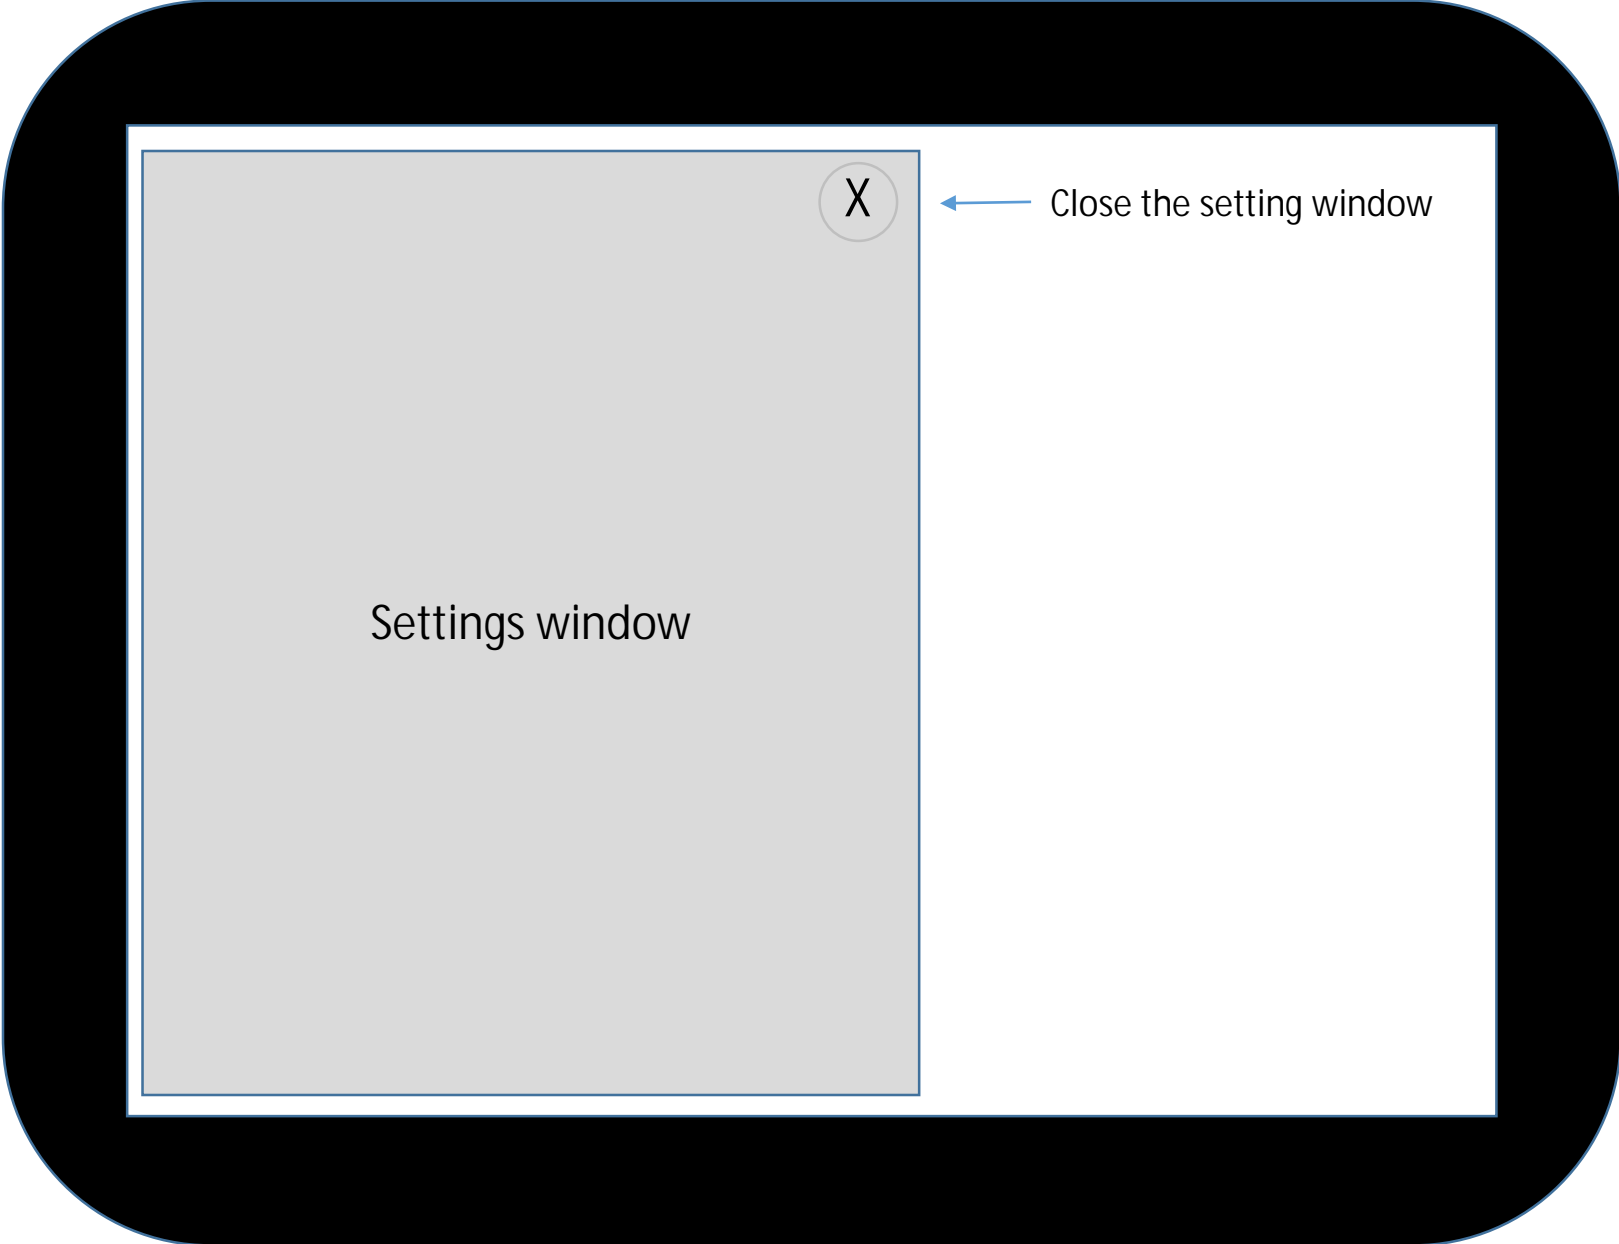

Full screen live view from Raspberry pi camera on a 10" screen

Opens a window for camera settings and location for storing still image and video

Saves a still image

Records a video, when video is recorded there should be a red circle on the screen

Close the setting window

Settings window